...yeah I made it
I'm addicted

[Eminem - First Verse]

This was a beat with no words at first, it's a blank painting
Exercising my mind, it's brain strength training
Starts off with the pain
Going to lengths explaining Myself to myself, but I ain't great at delaying The temptation and lust, the sensation's a must
A combination of rush and not giving a !!
So I'm giving up
Back to cabinet, a couple pills

Take enough to chill and just feel like nothing's real But satisfy my appetite, I feel like nothing will So I take a couple more, why the !! not?
I up the thrill
Wearing nothing but a bathrobe, got my wallet and that's it
Now I'm driving a back road, you could call it a bad trip Act cool but I'm nervous under the surface, swerving in both lanes
Is this !! worth it? This life is my cocaine
