"Crackers 'n Cheese"

[scratched sample] - "I'm the man!"

I stand in, ?? by the way as i begin do you know who I am? and may reply with a grin yes, I'm tired of being ?? why should I be secluded, I got a brand new horn to be tooted
To sum it up in a nutshell, "Eminem will you kick it for me?"
So I find myself in a certain ??depligatory??
A place where I dwell in, ?? for some wonderful productions to make up for lost time, ??
Finally let loose, unloading the stockpile a mental projectile, I aim like a reptile I look to the one handed juggler and ask him this
"Why is it you insist upon stepping to an octopus?"
Is there a reason for this? the hatred is aggravating How many times will it take you before you realize you're fading?
Fading from existence, cause simulations are dead there's so much more to learn, it pages left to be read, so put up the front while you jam for the grammar that's poor while i hold the scrapbook that's heavier than the hammer of the mighty Thor words can weigh a ton therefore it's never to fall into the hands of the wrong one

[scratched samples] - "Yeah", "It's another.."

There are few have made an attempt to put a foot on the other side
But I see no borderline, from under this colorblind
And some will probably never hold peices of the sacred
But then I'm finally about to put an end to the hatred
The world would never endure to arguing Awaking to the absence of unity is startling
"Oh foolish pride, what the hell is you tryin to do?"

You cannot beat someone that's better than you so quit trying to"

The outcome we want ?? nothing ?? despicable

So how do you think you can manage to kick the unkickable

You're graceless, bland, you're tasteless and you're faceless and You're dull it's time you faced this, here taste this

Straight from off of the pile, one of the numerous styles

The date of my birth on the Earth, the deliverance of a starchild

Rest with formidable talent and versatility

But with such a power, there comes a responsibility

To infringe on the boundaries, so now the defiance is clear

To form an alliance is something even the giants fear

So instead of being oblivious to the color of skin

Refuser abusin it's accepted now it's a trend

[scratched samples] - "Yeah", "It's another..."

You know I don't understand why we all just can't get along

You hate me but you know me and what I stand for

No? so then why do you speak for me and every other white man when you that we're your enemy?

On the floor lies a broken door, cause I'm not to be spoken for Stereotypes and superstitions and fictional folklore

Rarely do you see the lighter side of me

I try to be persuasive but also invasive and try to end the rivalry

But I've ?? apologies are exhausted

Feelings are turning glacial never to be defrosted

So who can I trust after repeatedly being shafted

Switch to the opposite, now see it being re-enacted

Pull up the ?? quick,

These ?? we hate him, these ?? are past us, huh

Always fighting for the position of top dog

That spot's already occupied, and I don't play leapfrog

Cause I do not wish to fight over territory that's already mine

But I'm always having to prove myself, time after time

Oh how I never understand how a man could be outcast

Judged from the past and he's put last

And ??bluffing?? with nothing to say, stutterin and slurrin

And mutterin words with no meaning, attack me side

I'm like ??Danny K/Danny Kane??
Here I go again hammerin stammerin grammerin and eat it like cheese, pass me the crackers please I've got a craving

[scratched sample until end] - "I'm the man"
