so look straight into my eyes,
tell me the truth and not lies
now i understand
too good to be true i»¿ our worlds collide
tell me the truth and not lies
now i understand

VERSE 1

it started off nice a dream i slept through i felt so good a touch so gental you was everything you was on my mental i was your pad and you was my pencil you were the words i was the instrumental without an us theres no song to sing to you were the match the gas that lit you you were the fire inside me that lit through you were the air that kept me alive when i could barely breathe and felt dead inside and my whole life felt like it was at its end then i saw your face and my smile came back again!
things turned up when i was close to you you reserrected me yea i rose to you no one loved me this much only you but i didnt know what the hell i was supposed to do!

so look straight into my eyes,
tell me the truth and not lies
now i understand
tell me the truth and not lies
now i understand

VERSE 2

nomore lies ima let you know now how much i feel for you nomore holding back what i feel and who i wouldnt kill for you im still here with a heart big enough to pump this blood through both of us to the people that deny what we have they can choke on big ol swollen nuts they can hate let em hate im getting so damn sick of them we jumped over lust and fell in love we dont gotta prove shit to them how can i say how much you mean to me without sounding so damn stupid i dont think you understand i love you so much its so confusing

so look straight into my eyes,
now i understand
too good to be true»¿ our worlds collide
now i understand

VERSE 3

weve been through shit and we keep going through it passion and dedication dedicate ourselves to us and we can make it through anything we can take it no matter the weather, we stay wet together in the rain and the hurricane hold my hand baby and we can beat it, love is pain
its so insane we stuck we cant leave it nope it wont let us so let us get wetter! fuck it lets dance in this rain get now get up! katrina couldnt wash away my love for you even if we let her! cuz baby im too tied to you we can make it through i wont lie to you you think this weather is strong? just hold on and see what the fuck i can do!

so look straight into my eyes,
now i understand

too good to be true
i»¿ our worlds collide
now i understand
