Saw him waiting for the train, I know someone he looks the same
That boy that's really in demand
And when I see him walking by
He looks at me I catch his eye
I don't think that he understands
And I bet he's got a girl and she's always on time
But if he gives me just one chance I know I'll blow his mind
Some girls try, some girls sigh, some girls let him pass them by
But I wont, I'm gonna take my chance, I'm gonna say stop.
I say hey hey
Hey hey baby if you be my guy I'll be your girl
Oh baby, show you all the lovin' in the world
Hey baby if you be my guy I'll be your girl
Oh baby, show you all the lovin' in the world
I wanna make him look and see that he needs a girl like me
That's why I'm gonna sing this song
The other girls they don't compare
They wear extensions in their hair
I hope he doesn't get me wrong.
Quit trying to make it hard you know how this will end Cause I'll be in your arms by the time this song ends
The girls that try, the girls that sigh Baby just let them pass you by They're not for you so take your chance when I say
stop.
I say hey hey
Hey hey baby if you be my guy I'll be your girl
Oh baby, show you all the lovin' in the world
Hey baby if you be my guy I'll be your girl
Oh baby, show you all the lovin' in the world
