Oh
Tonight, let's go
Oh yeah
[Incomprehensible], let's go

Just another wasted night
Just another wasted night
Just another wasted night

The world is going to hell tonight
The world is going to hell tonight
I'm stuck in this hell tonight
I'm going down in flames

I been feelin? kinda down, I been feelin? kinda out
I been runnin? like a dog that's been kicked around the house
I been starin? out the window and walkin? through the streets
Findin? nothin? but decay in everything that I see

Where can you turn? What can you do?
When their society's got nothin? for you
I got hate for everything in sight
And the world is going to hell tonight

But I'm gonna find some peace of mind
The world has gone to hell tonight
But tonight I'm gonna find some peace of mind

If I drink this wine I can stand the pain
If I drink this wine I can play their game
If I drink this shit maybe, I can bear
Bear to be part of this human race

If I drink this wine I can stand this place
If I drink this wine I can stand your face
If I drink this shit maybe, I can bear
Bear to be part of this human race
Bear to be stuck in this messed up place
Bear to be lost without a trace
Bear to be part of this twisted human race

[Incomprehensible]

I gotta find something to ease my mind
In this world of shit, in this world of lies
Cheap wine

I gotta find something to ease my pain
In this world of shit, in this world gone insane

Oh
Tonight
