(It never ends)

I lose again and again

My life is a hole filled with dark misery

The pain never ends, it just builds up inside

Like a ticking time bomb I'll explode in due time

I couldn't give a fuck about you

Your beliefs and what you hold true means shit!

When your life is nothing, living is the same as dying

Simply put my life is hell

No matter what you try, no matter what you do

You'll always end up alone, when your life is through

Should be no surprise when you're an outcast in life

My human compassion is gone, my human qualities are long gone

And the hate and the rage and the pain and the strain of live have left me completely insane

I was born into nothing to this world full of shit

and nothing's changing anytime soon

So I would rather die than listen to you try to compare me to you

Desperate, I never had a future, I never had a way out Hunted, they hold me down, they locked me out

Hopeless, I am the enemy of all you hold dear

Enemy, I am the end, the evil in this world of fear

I was promised that things'll look up

They lied!

I've lost all sense of love and pride

I'll die, a lonely angry bitter mess

Revenge is the only thing and nothing less

Revenge!

I want to laugh in your face before your last breath

My revenge will befall on all before my own death

I was born into nothing to this world full of shit

So I'll spit my last breath in your face and shriek to the sky

Fuck you!

Life slips through my fingertips

I rot away body and soul

(I shut my eyes) I close my mind until the day I die

I don't try to pretend

I'm not a disgrace, I know what I am

(I shut my eyes) I close my mind until the end of time
Inside it burns, it twists and turns
I tried to love but I'll never learn
(I shut my eyes) I close my mind, until the day I die
I have no soul left
I'm the walking dead
I rot away
(I close these eyes) I close my mind, until the end of time
