Legs MC:

Missing, snatched from under our noses, missing

Eminemmylou:

Your face gives us hope, burned in our minds

Where are you, where are you, where are you?

Please God send us a sign

Where are you, where are you, where are you?

Don't be lost in the midst of time

When I think back on all the good times

And I see your smiling face

I can hardly believe you're missing

And you've gone and you've not left a trace

Where are you, where are you, where are you?

Please god send us a sign

Where are you, where are you, where are you?

Don't be lost in the midst of time

Eminemmylou:

Convinced I saw you, nearly got run over

Almost wish I had when I knew it was all over

The dread came back, despair awakened

It wasn't you, the hope kept being taken

But your face gives me hope, burned in my mind

Your face gives me hope, God please be kind

Your face keeps me searching forever and a day

And I won't go mad, your face keeps me sane

How many times have we looked for you?

How many times have we called out your name?

How many times will we dream of you?

How many times till you're home again?

How many times have we messaged you?

How many times have we called?

How many times have we written you?

How many, how many, how many times?

Legs MC:

Come on people now, we need to focus

America's got milk cartons over here we put up posters

Mobile numbers and photos so feel free to phone us

From coast to coast there's no area that's not being patrolled, huh?

Missing, snatched from under our noses

So children be careful when a stranger approaches

You'll be cold and scared it's just the same for the homeless

and fighting off the urge to go and blame the ones closest,
I'm saving my hopes up, every clue is vital
Pulling out my hair and my wife is suicidal I'm hiding in my house while the police go through the cycle
Who could be so spineless? why would they be so spiteful?
Night after night I sleep less and worry more
Day after day police refine who they are hunting for
By Monday morning I demand we have some answers
Someone out there can put an end to this disaster.
Where are you, where are you, where are you?
Please God send us a sign
Where are you, where are you, where are you?
Don't be lost in the midst of time
I will always look to the future
Looking forward to when you are grown
And I see you without a worry
With strong happy bairns of your own
Where are you, where are you, where are you?
Please God send us a sign
Where are you, where are you, where are you?
Don't be lost in the midst of time
