I want to burn the letters that I wrote you
Over the phone today it felt like you were fading
Losing interest and ready to leave
Here i am thinking you were sent to save me.

I've had 89 days of Alcatraz
Silly me thinking it was over
89 days of losing my mind
silly silly me silly silly me

So I keep walking I keep walking singing sometimes Feeling like a shit cause I know what's happening
Investing like a rich girl
Gambling like a Vegas idiot
Putting out cause I haven't much before

I've had 89 days of Alcatraz
Silly me thinking it was over
89 days of losing my mind
Silly silly me silly silly me.

You don't know who you got yourself into
You don't know you don't know at all
You don't know who you got yourself into
You don't know you don't know
You don't know you don't know.
