Impossible, the frost has coated up the girl
The nature store details the great size of this world
A flicker in the sunshine
A crevice where you stay
Arms around the thoughtwaves
The thief that got away

Braving December
I will remember you
as the new year brings its chaos around
Move the days along
Bring adventure on and I'll find my way back to you somehow

The genius seeks a model star with a pottery mind
The riches will cascade I say but he's looking at the time
An angel in the avalanche
A corner where you breathe
Arms around the thoughtwaves
The calm that sets you free

Braving December
I will remember you
as the new year brings it chaos around
Move the days along
Bring adventure on
and I'll find my way back to you somehow

Somehow...

Impossible, the rain goes interrupting the snow
Didn't know your name until the middle of the road
You're a flicker in the sunshine
A dream that slid away
The icing on my winter
The thief that got away

Braving December
I will remember you
as the new year brings its chaos around
Move the days along

Bring adventure on and I'll find my way back to you Find my way back to you somehow
