Left my heavy guitars in Maidenhead
Instead of yelling and screaming
I put it all where no one sees it
And sometimes I say to my brother
You'll do just fine
I need a rocket and you need time

One for the big mind
Cause I know you need to dance to something
Or sing it on your way home
One for the big mind
Cause I wouldn't want to disappoint
You mean so much to me
And you do...

Full-grown man's gonna reunite his band
If he can
But all of that money in his shoe can't make him 22
Or half as cool
I say to my animal and all her lives
I could use seven or eight if you don't mind

One for the big mind
Cause I know you need to dance to something
Or sing it on your way home
One for the big mind
Cause I wouldn't want to disappoint
You mean so much to me
And you do...

Did I write a big enough
Write a big enough chorus for you
You don't know a thing about
Know a thing about
Getting down when you're up
In your skyscraper

Copy-cat of a girl won't phone me back
How about that Too busy I bet she's sick of being a sheep but I wish her well
And I can't tell I'm gonna make Castoer a bigger star

Than he ever thought he'd never get so far.

One for the big mind
Cause I know you need to dance to something
Or sing it on your way home
One for the big mind
Cause I wouldn't want to disappoint
You mean so much to me
And you do...

It doesn't take very long to say nothing
