All the stars above I named for you
Constellations spun like a see of aquablue (aquablue)
Now where do I find us
Without love or kindness
Piecing up these broken scenes
Burning down my teenage dreams
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
Running after you asking everyone what is true
I've had all of this bad news but I believed
That I was done being a lonestar
All the nights I wandered in the haze (all the nights I wandered)
Are back to greet me with a smile again (with a smile)
And now where will I land Without the comfort of your hand (comfort of your hand)
Angels whisper you're so wrong
I'll wait till the regret comes on
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
Running after you asking everyone what is true
I've had all of this bad news but I believed
That I was done being a lonestar
Maybe the time has come
To get out into a brighter sun
Though I know you more than anyone
You still stay blind to me you know that You still say blind to me
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
One day you will wonder why you left me like a lonestar
Running after you asking everyone what is true
I've had all of this bad news but I believed
That I was done being a lonestar
Oh...
(Running after you asking everyone what is true)
Asking what is true
(I've had all of this bad news)
But I believed that I was done being...
I was just running after you...
That I was done being a lonestar
That I was done being a lonestar
