When I close my eyes
Feeling the sun and the lake
Colors in my mind
Everything else melts away
And what I feel inside
No one can take that away, from me
When I'm feeling high
Is when you're by my side
So incredible, just you and I

Cos what we've got it is alright
You and me will always be so tight
No need to complicate it
Cos everything is working out just fine
You know me better than you think
Cos we got a thing that's so complete
Cos we're taking it easy, yeah yeah

All the things that we do
Seems so easy with you

All the things we do
Watching the sun rise again
Lying in your arms
Your body is calling me in, to you

Now I'm feeling high
Cos you're by my side
It's so incredible, just you and I

Cos what we've got it is alright
You and me will always be so tight
No need to complicate it (complicate it)
Cos everything is working out just fine
Cos you know me better than you think
Cos we got a thing that's so complete
We're taking it easy, yeah yeah

All the things that we do
Seems so easy with you, yeah yeah
All the things that we do
Seems so easy with you

When I'm feeling high
Is when you're by my side
So incredible, just you and I

Cos what we've got it is alright
You and me will always be so tight
No need to complicate it (complicate it)
Cos everything is working out just fine
You know me better than you think (yeah-eh)
Cos we got a thing that's so complete
Cos we're taking it easy (yeah yeah)

Cos what we've got it is alright (yeah yeah yeah)
You and me will always be so tight
No need to complicate it (complicate it)
Cos everything is working out just fine
Cos you know me better than you think
Cos we got a thing that's so complete
We're taking it easy
