I turn this little town upside down lookin' in the cracks in the corners Coverd this ground and made my rounds made it all the way to the border I've gone crazy about the lost of my mind tried everything and couldnt find Nothin' I could hold on to well I guess that I was walking blind Cause I never saw a single sign that pointed my way to you

I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love where could it be
I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love looks like love found me

I guess I must have missed you by a mile when you told me
You liked that little dress I was wearing Lookin' back now I remember how I thought I caught you staring
And the way you gave me butterflys the kind you feel down deep inside
I should have listend to my heart well I thought that you were being nice I never dreamed that you'd be mine and holdin' me in your arms

I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love where
could it be
I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love looks
like love found me

could it be
I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love looks
like love found me
I've been lookin' for love, been lookin' for love where
could it be
I've been lookin' for love, for love, for love, looks like love found me
