hush hush, don't say a word don't say a word

Each day passes by in a blurry haze, like a tape that's being played at the wrong speed, can't breathe, gotta run, gotta hide from what we need.
like a fire that burns in my heart, like a siren screaming in the dark, like the blood that's pounding inside of me, can't let them see,

Bridge
all the stars, bow their heads in shame. coz they know, you cannot speak my name, you cannot speak my name

Chorus
hush hush, dont say a word,
sound carries in the night, carries in the night

wrong place, wrong times, still we cannot erase all the pain that we have to face, each and every time you know we can't stop, gotta walk (across that line), relive this life thats such a waste, living in denial, it's too fast, too slow you finally know, right place, right time, we have to hide

Bridge
you refuse,
to hide my head in shame, coz for now, you cannot speak my name, you cannot speak my name,

Chorus

dont say a word, dont say a word, dont say a word no no no

Chorus x2

hush hush dont say a word,
