You see that's where you were wrong
My life is still going on
I'm broke and suffocated, with your actions baby
You thought that I would take it all
I'm breakable, I'm breakable, I'm breakable
But I'm not that breakable
I was not the way you thought, impossible
I was not the kind to stay around
I like to stand on solid ground
I'm breakable, I'm breakable, I'm breakable
I know what I want
Not that breakable, baby

So you see that's where you were wrong
Baby I'm still going strong
Blamed and broken hearted, I was left half minded
I'm gonna make it on my own
Chorus...
I know what I want
I needed something more than you gave me
If only you have seen
I'm breakable, I'm breakable, I'm breakable
I wanted to dance, everlasting romance
You offered no chance
This is how it feels, I'm not that breakable
Chorus
