Yes hello, I've got a big soul
I'm a can full of joy, too

Yes I'll see you later, I'll see you later

Yes hello, I've got a nice home
I've got a coffee machine, and everything's clean

Yes hello, now I must go

I have people here and there, so I must flow
Oh hello, it's you I know

You saw the two chores

Clever boy with two by four
I can switch to third one

So you can all rest easy
And I'll preach to no one

So you can all rest easy
Buy a gun, buy a good one

Make sure that you're heard
In the long run

Make your mends, or build a good fence
Stop snooping around, like a bloodhound

I'm a can full of joy
Can full of joy again...
