You know its hard for me to accept that i will never have you , that you will always have the upper hand
you own my heart i aint got much left so i am forced to find a dream with worth fighting for cause ill fight tooth and nail until im dead and i will fight tooth and nail until im dead because i am aware ,got one life to live why not take a chance

she danced around the room i just wanted to choke you blue (i wonder if it makes a diffrence)

and i know now that we will never speak these open eyes , they now see the reality i only got one life to live im tired of waiting on the stands time to put my life back in my hands go right ahead and marry the henchmen and when i show up at your wedding ill bring flowers

and a shotgun
