Follow you close, four steps behind
Part of me knew all of this time
Pushed it down deep, kept it so small
To help me keep these fragile rules

From crashing down around my feet
Don't make a sound, just let you be
Lost in her face, can't turn away
This final blow helps me let go

Don't stop now, I need this to hurt
Bounded into my mind
No more second guessing anymore
This is how it ends

So don't stop now, get my head on straight
And if seeing this is what intakes
Please, don't stop it now
This will be the last time

This darkened street you go to hide illuminates
You're not mine, these days run cold
My body numb, I am not whole, what have you done?
It all makes sense to disconnect

Too many words were left unsaid
But still I stare frozen here
Until the curtains close

Don't stop now, I need this to hurt
Bounded into my mind
No more second guessing anymore
This is how it ends

So don't stop now, get my head on straight
And if seeing this is what intakes
Please, don't stop it now
This will be the last time

So don't stop now
I need to see this through until this final bar
Illusions' gone, the show is done

So don't stop now

Follow you close, four steps behind
Part of me knew you were not mine

So don't stop now, I need this to hurt
Bounded into my mind
No more second guessing anymore
This is how it ends

So don't stop now, get my head on straight
And if seeing this is what intakes
Please, don't stop it now
Let this be the last time

Don't stop now
I need to see this through until this final bar
Illusions' gone, the show is done
So don't stop now
