Emmylou Harris & Pure Prairie League

I know that it's supposed to be all over
And I know that I can take it if that's the way it has to be
But ya' see it's been so long we've been together
That I just can't believe it anyway.

It's so hard to say goodbye to one who loves you
When you know that you might never meet again
And I know we both will cry and miss each other
That I just can't believe it anyway
No I just can't believe it anyway.

Here we stand hand in hand not knowin' what to say
Now I open the door and as we go away
These tears in our eyes threaten to give us both away
And for once now our hearts are really showin'
Still I just can't believe it anyway.
Now I just can't believe it anyway.
