Sunrise

I've watched the sun rise through this
It's broken family ties
Forgiveness is helpful when the loss sets in
Dark days are yet to come
From the grave we've just begun
(3x)

From here on out
I'll never doubt
I'll never take one minute for granted
Appreciate what you've been handed
Minutes turn to hours
Days turn to years
Time keeps on passing by
These things no one hears
Dark days are yet to come
From the grave we've just begun
(2x)

I'm finding it hard to let go of your memory
Now that you're gone
It's so hard to believe
From here on out
I'll never doubt
I'll never take one minute for granted
Appreciate what you've been handed
In my dreams, when I sleep
Now that you're gone, it's so hard to believe
(2x)
It's so hard to believe
