Can you feel them?
Those hands around your throat
They're cold and they're trying to kill your soul
I know, I've been there
At the end of my rope
No sign of help in sight
Lost every ounce of hope
Can't see the Light at the end of the road
No happy ending, nothing left to live for
(2x)
Even though the tears will fall
It can't rain all the time
Your darkest hour will not last
Even though the tears will fall
It can't rain all the time
Your strength will grow as the days pass
I speak words of experience
I thought my life was done
I thought I couldn't go on
I swore I wouldn't go on
I speak words of experience
I thought my life was done
And that I could not go on
Can't see the Light at the at the end of the road
No happy ending, nothing left to live for
(2x)
And I can't remember the last time I cried
Now I know I have strength inside
(2x)
Even though the tears will fall
It can't rain all the time
(2x)
And I can't remember the last time that I cried
Now I know I have strength inside
And I can't remember the last time I cried
Now I know I have strength inside
And I can't remember the last time that I cried
