Echo, echo, echo
Echo, echo, echo
All I hear is the echo

I call her name (echo)
And all I hear is the
(Echo, echo, echo, do do do)
The echo through my lonely room
(Lonely room, lonely, lonely room)

I sit and cry (echo)
And all I hear is the
(Echo, echo, echo, do do do)
The echo of her lonely tears
(Lonely tears, lonely, lonely tears)

I still remember
That summer night
We were out driving
Everything seemed so right

Then I lost control
The car turned over
I heard her calling
Ooh, ooh, I'll never forget

Now I'm alone (echo)
And all I have is the
(Echo, echo, echo, do do do)
The echo of her lonely call
(Lonely call, lonely, lonely call)

As long as I live (echo)
I'll never forget her echo
Echo, echo, echo, echo
