I am waiting by the phone
Listen on the floor
You've got that rhythm

I am fainting by your walls
You're headed out the door
I'll build my insight

Not droppin' the wayside
Because of all that battle I've taken
Not takin' the long ride
Besides, it's not my neck you're breakin'

I am kneeling by your walls
You're workin' in the bar
I know you're inside

I am painting by your walls
You've headed out the door
I'll build my insight

Not droppin' the wayside
Because of all the battle I've taken
Not takin' the long ride
Besides, it's not my neck you're breakin'

Not droppin' the wayside
Because of all the battle I've taken
Not takin' the long ride
Besides, it's not my neck you're breakin'

Not droppin' the wayside
Because of all the battle I've taken
Not takin' the long ride
Besides, it's not my neck you're breakin'
