OHHH!!!

RUN!!!

WATCH YOUR BLOOD ON THE GROUND!!!

the mild wind blow the trees, and the sun is shining
everything is so, Calm...

You're walking home, from a distant place,
and you don't guess nothing...

Something Strange , will start tonight, but now everything is still so calm...

CHORUS:

Watch your blood, on the ground,

and ask why is this here?!2x

The grass under your feet , is so soft,
and the air that you breathe is clear now...
Maybe it's the last????!!2x

Chorus

So now, you can't run
the dead will come...
your eyes on the sky,
your blood on the ground...
so now that you're dead,
it's time to wake up!!2x
