How have thou fallen from heaven and cast down to the ground

How are the outcasts forsaken

We will send

When the trumpets sound

Woah

Woah

The anthem of the outcast

Dammed straight to hell

The day the angels fell

Devout with broken wings I fall

Broken and all alone

Suffering the unknown

A plea of mercy I call

Awake

Arise

Or be forever fallen

Awake

Arise

Or be forever fallen

Woah

Redemption will be found

Woah

Through the stars we are bound

Woah

We will not bow down

Woah

The anthem of the outcast

Oh my dearest son

What have you become

Into the void, you crawl

So full of jealousy

You fell away from me

Into the fire, wanted for all

The stars we were
The stars we'll be
Circling for eternity

The stars we were
The stars we'll be
Circling for eternity

Woah
Redemption will be found
(Redemption will be found)
Woah
Through the stars we are bound
(Through the stars we are bound)
Woah
We will not bow down
(We will not bow down)
Woah
The anthem of the outcast
(The anthem of the outcast)

Jealous of flame
Cauldron of change
We have the power to heal and reclaim

Jealous of flame
Cauldron of change
We have the power to heal and reclaim

Go

Woah
(Redemption will be found)
Woah
Through the stars we are bound
(Through the stars we are bound)
Woah
We will not bow down
(We will not bow down)
Woah

Awake
Arise
Or be forever fallen
Awake
Arise
Or be forever fallen
