Have it your way, we'll have the answers in a week We'll take some measurements and work it out with the sums Cos their way, what a way, anyhow it doesn't matter much Cos their way, what a way, anyhow now it's got stuck, it just wasn't enough

Low low low, low low low
Find a reason why, find a reason why

Pay attention son, you might learn something You work real hard at it and just look what you could be
You soak it up, every word of advice, still it's missing You're searching for something so invisible, raise your glasses to cheer for what you're not

Low low low, low low low
Find a reason why, find a reason why I...
