[verse 1]

.. rage
i'll be the one race two colors and two different shades my skin the color green no room to breathe just stay the fuck away so why can't you keep your mouth shut if you have nothing to say i dont get what the big deal is with everyone and there hate i wish it was a closed fist the wrong thing to say im only here for today i heard the world may be saved i got my crew i got the truth all i need is my cue (you dont need)
