Eternal pain, something I will take to my grave.
The memory is an image I just can't erase.
I've spent my life, always, walking in the shadows.
Scared alone, locked away, inside my castle.
When you love something, they say set it free, if it don't come back, it Wasn't ment to be.
I destroy everything I touch.
Even things I love too much.
I am cursed with these hands, they will never understand.
I don't wanna let you go, incomplete and all alone.
Here I am waiting for my sacride true love.
With these hands that hold me trapped like a steal glove.
When you love something, they say set it free, and if it
don't come back,
It wasn't ment to be.
I destroy everything I touch.
Even things I love too much.
I am cursed with these hands, they will never
understand.
I don't want to let you go, incomplete and all alone.
(Music)
I destroy everything I touch.
Even things I love too much.
I am cursed with these hands, they will never
understand.
I don't want to let you go, incomplete and all alone.
Oh oh, oh oh, I'm incomplete and all alone.
Oh oh, oh oh, I don't want to let you go.
