Down you fell deep into your mind
Off to wonderland, leaving what's real behind
Your a riddle I can't seem to read
Your love a fairy tale; too hard to believe!

Broken and sad, as the tarnish on your crown
Nowhere to go but down
Caught up in yourself, nowhere to be found
No other way but down.

Down, down, down.
Down, down, down.

Say your farewell to what's real
Like the pain that you feel
Welcome to Wonderland, it's dead
Eat me or drink me
Seeing is believing
Wonderland, baby, is all in your head.

Your cup runs over with emptiness
Chasing the hand of your innocence
Hiding behind your Cheshire smile
Once was vivid was gray all the while.

Broken and sad, as the tarnish on your crown
Nowhere to go but down
Caught up in yourself, nowhere to be found
No other way but down.

Down, down, down.
Down, down, down.

Say your farewell to what's real
Like the pain that you feel
Welcome to Wonderland, it's dead
Eat me or drink me
Seeing is believing
Wonderland, baby, is all in your head.Â
