Standing on this duty road, listening to my radio
If you could see me
I know you'd swear
I'm a thousand miles from anywhere
Well it may seem stone & same to you Baby
But I guess it's just what I gotta do Just to get myself to where you are
But, you know I'd travel many times as far

Well I hope I'm headed in the right direction
Get no time for making wrong decisions
What could give me such an sense of mission?
Only love could of brough me here in the right direction
Yea, yea, yea

Well it takes a strong & mighty wind to send me all places I've been
It takes more than one or tell the tale
Baby-searching for some holy grave and I

Hope I'm headed in the right direction
Get no time for making wrong decisions
What could give me such an sense of mission?
Only love only love
could of brought me here

Everybody knows that love will make you crazy make you play the fool,
It's so exciting
so don't you be surprised
If one lazy afternoon I come
Knocking on your door-Baby
Cuz you know I'm down on you
Well I may not pass this way again
If I do, I don't know then
But it seems to me, only unless I'm wrong baby
That our paths will cross before too long well boy

Well I hope I'm headed in the right direction
Get no time for making wrong decisions

What could give me such an sense of mission?
Only love could of brough me here in the right direction
Yea, yea, yea

Well I hope I'm headed in the right direction
Get no time for making wrong decisions
What could give me such an sense of mission?
Only love could of brough me here in the right direction
Yea, yea, yea

Well I hope I'm headed in the right direction
Get no time for making wrong decisions
What could give me such an sense of mission?
Only love could of brough me here in the right direction
Yea, yea, yea

Only love
