[Encore]

I was that suburban negroid

Devoid of tribal instinct

To survive in these streets to me meant to pack my lunchmeat

Lonely but had em only have child perks

The ravage Sagitarius who got what he got through various

Outbursts of disfunction, self-proclaimed black sheep

I'm out for 'delf man, no game is that deep

I peep but all I ever see was a sea of leporsy

Drowin my brown skin, sold to cleverly

Adapt, ASAP was my modus op'

It was me, ?balany alot? before them quarters drop

Three niggas to one block

Ace, Boom, Self tried to chase wound

Face doom, make moves playin the tune

Of music them savages be usin, to manage amongst the ruins

My folks are lavish but I'm still pursuin squeals

Stop consumin L's, abusin brain cells

But wonder if my thirst for righteousness confused wit
'cane sales

Knowin the answer, I leave the triple beams to fiends
Blowin advance in green like Jo Jo Dancer
My life is caught and so is stream line of life
I'm callin them and settin lofty goals
Feelin like my soul is chose
More so than those who front the Nazi's dough
I let you know cuz God bestowed me to ? and see true
For what it's worth, they say the earth's the meat's turf
But now I'm found to run the planet
I can't be weak to inherit it how it was handed
I need courage to understand the underhand
The plot and schemes, Illuminati got your bean fried
While I'm prepared for what's within the glare
Of the all-seeing eye, me and my shadow
Battle the snakes that rattle
As the mass get they ass served in herds
Similar to cattle, puttin they life up on collateral Yo but for you this may not matter though
See for me, this is therapy
Critical thinkin to keep my ass away from drinkin
And smokin, locin wit my folks when it's unproductive Allah selective who he keeps protecting
So I keep this all in perspective
My scripts got me lit wit all this shit I been through That marks a seen through, don't even spark a scheme or two

But I found, despite your plight the world goes 'round

If you don't know by now, let me lay it down for you
