

End August "Darklight"

How can one day be light
When the next day is ashes
It is the moment where
My whole world crashes
Before my eyes
My whole life flashes
A place where feelings, emotions
And pure judgement clashes

Save me from myself
As darklight enfolds the soul
Please bring me to life
Or forever I'll feel the cold

Until the daybreak of dawn
You will see the shadows
All around me they call
Their voice starts to echo
Even the blackest parts
How they seem so shallow
And nothing can help me now
When I'm feeling this low

Save me from myself
As darklight enfolds the soul
Please bring me to life
Or forever I'll feel the cold

[Interlude]

Save me from myself
As darklight enfolds the soul
Please bring me to life

Save me from myself
As darklight enfolds the soul
Please bring me to life
Or forever I'll feel the cold
