What are you trying to do?
What are you trying to say?
You're beating up yourself
What is it today?

You're killing me slow
(La, da, de, da, da)
When the tide goes out
I'm getting over it, it's alright

Where do we go from here?
What are you doing today?
Beating up yourself
Look, what am I trying to say?

You're killing me slow
(La, da, de, da, da)
When the tide goes out
I'm getting over it, it's alright

But it seems to be
When the magic is lost
I'm getting over it by myself

You said we can work it out
But we don't even get along anymore
You said we can work it out
But I don't even have the patience to be myself

No, what are you trying to do?

You're killing me slow
(La, da, de, da, da)
When the tide goes out
I'm over it, It's alright

But it seems to be
When the magic is lost
I'm getting over it by myself

You said we can work it out
But I don't even know what for

We can work it out
But we don't even get along anymore

No, what are you trying to do?
