Choking every breath we take it's never ending
But it promised not to swallow us whole
Submersion is impending
Seems so condescending
Will you hate me when I drown from it all?

Everything you envy is waiting
In the ocean
In the ocean
If I swear not to swallow will you save me
In the ocean

Into the ocean you pry it's electric eye
It gives no answers
You choke you gasp on emissions
Of your self made cancer

I believe in the will of a dying man
His burning chest, his undying quest
For one more breath

Everything you envy is waiting
In the ocean
In the ocean
If I swear not to swallow will you save me
In the ocean

One more time x3

Everything you envy is waiting
In the ocean
In the ocean
If I swear not to swallow will you save me
In the ocean
