My friend he played the fool
Always pointing his finger at the reasons for why
We're all dying, it was him all along.

It's over, it's over, let him know that it's over
You broke him, you broke him
Like the trust that you sold us
It's over now
I'll save him now

Father I know It's cruel
But you lifted your finger and the pain seems to linger
If good things leave us, we'll build a home so far away.

It's over, it's over, let her know that It's over

You broke her you broke her
Like the trust that you sold us
It's over now
I'll save her now

My head keeps on bringing me back to those days.

It's over, it's over, let her know that It's over
You broke her, you broke her
Like the trust that you sold us
It's over now
I'll save her now

If goodness leaves us
We'll build a home so far away
If good things leave us
We'll build our home so far away.
