Won't repeat what I've heard
But I feel weak and the grasp's not firm
It's something wrong that I can't work out
I'd leave this place but I just walked out

Somebody said that's all in my mind, mind
But I'm not sure, I've felt it before
And it's lie, lie

Violence inside of this silent stare
Violence inside of this silent stare

Hiding the things that you already know, know
Waiting for signs
Everything moves so slow, slow

Violence inside of this silent stare

Violence inside of this silent stare

Won't repeat what I've heard
But I feel weak and the grasp's not firm
Is something wrong? I can't work out
I'd leave this place but I just walked out

Somebody said that's all in my mind
But I'm sure, I've felt it before
And it's lie, lie

Violence inside of this silent stare
Violence inside of this silent stare
