I swore that I'd never do it again
But I surrender all my will to all the psilocybin
Dropped caps and stems with all of my friends
And so went the hardest trip I've ever been in

I'm climbing walls
Life without a safety net to break all my falls
I wanna know how much poison
Can I take before a tag's on my toe?

Welcome to your mind
The most dangerous place you've ever been
You little graceful disgrace
Now everything is taking different shapes

But I can't sleep till the morning
Pray to God that I make it

I'm climbing walls
Life without a safety net to break all my falls
I wanna know how much poison
Can I take before a tag's on my toe?

I'm climbing walls
Life without a safety net to break all my falls
I wanna know how much poison
Can I take before a tag's on my toe?

Where did I go?
How do I know?
I'm all alone
Where did everybody go?
