A little bit of a smile
A surprise I don't deserve
But you assure me it's mine

I never let it inside
I thought that if you knew me well
You wouldn't give me the time

But it's okay, if you know it's in me

Hey, it's finally right
With you it's easy to follow light
Hey, tomorrow arrives
With all the feelings you described

Thinking it over in line
The way I spent all my time
Your body tells me it's fine
I might even begin to believe it could be better outside

You make it easy
You make it easy to believe
I'm not the same insufferable boy
