He's a land shark coming through
Better watch out he's coming for you
He doesn't care what's right from wrong

People say that he should change
He don't want to live his life that way

[chorus:]
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you

You better keep your opinion to yourself
Win or loose, he will give it a try
Look you in the eye, eye to eye
He don't need no fucking alibi

[chorus:]
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you

Don't give a toss about what you think
And all your views, he thinks they fucking stink

[chorus:]
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you
He's a land shark, what are you gonna do
He's a land shark, and he's coming for you
