I woke up today with a smile on my face
I thought to myself, I don't mind this place
I don't care about the job i've got to do
Things they have changed all because of you

[chorus:]

Say hey, things could be worse
I don't care about the bills i've got to pay
Things could be worse
I will try to pay them anyway
Things could be worse
I don't care about the dark clouds in the sky
Things could be worse
I'm gonna have myself a good day

When i look at the blue eyes on her face
I think to myself i've made a change
My life is different on so many ways
I wouldn't take it all back no way

[chorus:]

Say hey, things could be worse
I don't care about the bills i've got to pay
Things could be worse
I will try to pay them anyway
Things could be worse
I don't care about the dark clouds in the sky
Things could be worse
I'm gonna have myself a good day

When people said my life would change
They were right in the things they said
She helps me see the good things in life
Without her i would be incomplete

[chorus:]

Say hey, things could be worse
I don't care about the bills i've got to pay
Things could be worse
I will try to pay them anyway
Things could be worse

I don't care about the dark clouds in the sky
Things could be worse
I'm gonna have myself a good day
