you got you got you got
the getaway
when times are rough we need to break away

as i search for the answers deep in my mind as i break into something something new something real in your face make you taste as i come from this world of strife fell the pain of life yet i still breathe you got no choice but to feed motherfucking greed

i don't believe this you don't see it
always bleeding
your going down

get the fuck away
