Carve the star into my arms
To be a part of the unholy fire
Escape from this world
A place of lies and false homage
I kill myself
To end my martyrdom
A last look back
At this cheated world

I cross the line
In order to find myself
A clean and tortured place
I take my life
To dive into Endstilles Reich
A place where they honour me
My life ended
At the day I was created
Be sorrow of this world
Full of stupid and sick humanity
The true martyr
Be blind of your life
Replace the truth

I cross the line
In order to find myself
A clean and tortured place
I take my life
To dive into Endstilles Reich
A place to honour me
