"Of Open Wounds"

Kill me, kill me, kill me again
with the knife that twists my life away
Hear me, hear me, hear me once more
As I read the lines of fabled lore
Leave me here on the broken floor
As you resurrect your battered soul
Are we afflicted?
No... we are blind...

(pre-chorus)
...of open wounds and bleeding hearts
The journey begins as we drift apart...

(chorus)
The time has come - we die again
What we possess will be our decline
It hides with me as I toss the key
How great thou art!
How great thou art!

(pre-chorus)
(chorus)

(lead: DeGroot)

(verse I)
(pre-chorus)
(chorus)
