The lust of life just ran away
Death seems to be the only way
Scared of what they do not know
Push me further down below
Beware of retribution
All is fair in war!

I scream out my anger for the ones
Who fuels this fire
I scream out my anger for the ones
Who runs this ride!

There's evil around us
They grab what they can
It's fuel on my fire
I'm breaking their chains!

This is how they run this world
The value of man
Counted in cash
Only one thing left to do
And it's do or die for me

I scream out my anger for the ones
Who fuels this fire
I scream out my anger for the ones
Who runs this ride!

There's evil around us
They grab what they can
It's fuel on my fire
I'm breaking their chains!
