"Nothing Left To Lose"

We are alive in the pain,
A stray dog alone when the rain comes down,
I try and wash it away (but it's all around me now,)
We are alone when the rain comes,
It's all around you now,
It's all around;

There's nothing left to say,
There's left to prove,
There's everything to gain,
When there's nothing left to lose,
There's nothing left to say,
There's nothing we can do,
We will find a way,
We've got nothing left to lose.

We are alone in this place,
Some days it's hard to believe in anything,
I try and push it away (but it's all around me now,)
We are alone when the rain comes,
It's all around you now,
It's all around;

There's nothing left to say,
There's left to prove,
There's everything to gain,
When there's nothing left to lose,
There's nothing left to say,
There's nothing we can do,
We will find a way,
We've got nothing left to lose.

And all around me now,
The waves are crashin' 'round,
And I am only half way down,
Underneath this cloud,
They're waiting to hear the sound,
I am only half way,

It's all around you now,
It's all around;

There's nothing left to say,
There's left to prove,
There's everything to gain,
When there's nothing left to lose,
There's nothing left to say,
There's nothing we can do,
We will find a way,
We've got nothing left to lose.
