When the time is right you got to get up and fight (get up and fight)

When your number's up you gotta get up and die (get up and die)

Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
Because the crowds are coming
Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
That skin will get numb

How many times have you been mistreated
How many times have you been mislead
They brought this nightmare to light
All we wanted was to be respected
Learned our lessons, and don't you forget
We stand larger than life
What if I lost it

It was said and done but I needed some more (needed some more),
I hadn't had enough, kept kicking in doors (kicking in doors)

Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
Because the crowds are coming
Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
That skin will get numb

How many times have you been mistreated
How many times have you been mislead
They brought this nightmare to light
All we wanted was to be respected
Learned our lessons, and don't you forget
We stand larger than life
What if I lost it
Now what if I lost it
What if I lost it

Convicted with no excuse
Just pull the trigger, I got nothin' to lose you know
Disputed, disputed I will not be locked down
Split lipped with nothin' to lose you know

I never really change my point of view you know
Dispute it, the victim is you...
I will not be locked down (is you)
I will not be locked down (is you)
I will not be locked down (is you)
I will not be locked down

How many times have you been defeated
How many times have you been depressed
How many times have you taken the beating
How many times have you been put to the test
All we wanted was to be respected
Learned our lessons, don't you ever forget
We stand larger than life
What if I lost it

Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
Because the crowds are coming
Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
That skin will get numb (what if I lost it)

Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
Because the crowds are coming (what if I lost it)
Would you walk five blocks when you gotta meet me
That skin will get numb
