You're So Beautiful

Girl, there's a secret in your eyes
A look this man can not ignore
Girl, I don't know what's on your mind
So you must know I want you more
Like a trip to paradise
You're so beautiful
But I think you're really mine
I gotta tell the world
You are so beautiful
You make my heart a fool
When I take you in my arms
Your kisses sweet delight

They feel so wonderful
You're making this a magic night
Now, with your body burning mine
I don't mean to drink the wine
I'm not so high .....

There's something so unreal
Now, I can tell you how I feel
A fantasy you made come true
