Some loves are easy, and some are just games
Sometimes the one you love doesn't even have a name
Sometimes I run away, but this time I'll stay
'Cause you say your love will mend what's broken

CHORUS

So hold me, tell me that you'll be here tomorrow
Just hold me, do you have a love I can borrow?
'Cause the fire in your eyes, it makes my heart ignite
So hold me, hold me tonight.

Some loves are spoken, and some understood
Sometimes you throw away a love that seemed so good
Now here I am with you, feelin' hope again
This time I hope there'll be no ending

Repeat CHORUS

(Bridge)

Let our souls unite! You will be the love in my life!
Tell me that it's not just for the night.

Repeat CHORUS
