Mornin' clouds are gatherin' around
As I stand on the bridge of the river
Years have gone since I was here
And I'm wonderin' how I differ
Taxi cabs keep rollin' by
And a blind man asks for change
And here I stand a soldier in the rain

Comin' home was all I thought of Seein' my family and friends
They say love knows no distance
But the longing never ends
And all along this dreams I possessed
My heart never were too plain
And here I stand a soldier in the rain

I remember years ago
I had so many plans
And now I watch the river flow
Time has brought me here
With empty hands

I remember years ago
I had so many plans
And now I watch the river flow
Time has brought me here
With empty hands

Mornin' clouds are gatherin' around
And the streets are full of reflections
But traffic light and the moon still bright
People goin' in different directions
I've thought about why I'm here
It's just too hard to explain
So here I stand a soldier in the rain

In the rain, in the rain, in the rain
