Turn on the radio
we'll play it way down low There's a tear in your eye that's reflecting the fire's glow

And I wish that this night would never end
The sun ain't gonna be my friend Lying here awaiting here and wishing I knew when

(chorus)
We'll never have to say goodbye again
We'll never have to
say goodbye again

You must leave, I know you will

I won't let you go until You show me the secret for making this time stand still

And somewhere sometime from now together again somehow All of the waiting will seem like a moment and then

(chorus)

The whole night afraid to see the light And the whole day crying wishing I knew when

(repeat chorus to fade)
